Qualche info su di me? Sono rainwiz.

Nasco, studio, vivo, lavoro a Roma.
Pago le bollette facendo User Experience Design.
Non parlatemi la mattina o se vi accorgete che non ho abbastanza caffeina in corpo. È un avvertimento.

Amici, cinema, libri, fumetti, concerti, whisky e vino rosso sanno come aggiungere sapore alle mie serate.

Sono quel tipo di uomo fluido, jeans e t-shirt, skip intro, take it easy. Il mio record personale è 7 film di fila, quasi 15 ore continuative, durante la Mostra del Cinema a Venezia nel 2002.

Mi piace il calcio, ma il rugby è un'altra cosa.
Musica. Ascolto pressoché tutto, da Mehldau al Punk/Hip/Ska.

Sono abbastanza ossessionato dal possesso di spazzolini gialli.

Non mi considero un fotografo: scatto semplicemente perché faccio tutto quello che mi va di fare.

More about me? I'm rainwiz.

Living in Rome, grown up in Rome, born in Rome.
User Experience Design pays the bills.
If it's morning or I haven't got my coffee yet, don't talk to me.
Consider that your formal warning.

Friends, cinema, books, comics, live music, whiskey and full-bodied wine know how to add flavour to my evenings.

I'm a fluid, jeans and t-shirt, skip intro, take it easy kind of man. My proudest record is 7 film in a row, 15 hours watching at 2002 Venice's Film Festival.

Soccer rocks but rugby was made for the Gods.
Music. I listen at it all. from Mehldau to Punk/Hip/Ska.

I'm pretty much obsessed with yellow toothbrushes.

I don't consider myself a photographer: I just do whatever I wanna do.
